Alexzandra Danielle Loos
Sept. 2, 1988 – Aug. 12, 2004
This race is held in honor of Alex, whose life was taken too soon.
Alex was known for her vast accomplishments; one of her most well-known being her involvement in sports.
Her accomplishments include:
- Track
  - 1st place WPIAL 1600 meter with record time
  - 2nd place WPIAL 800 meter
  - 3rd place state level 1600 meter
  - 5th place state level 800 meter run
- Soccer: one of only 2 girls on the team
- Other sports: volleyball and basketball
- An honor student for all 9 years
- American Legion Award recipient
- Presidential award
- Involvement in: Leo Club, 4-H, High School Band, volunteered time with elementary students, and much more

Alex’s love and devotion to running is why this run is the most appropriate tribute to her life.
